AUGIE SCHROEDER SCHOLARSHIP

A college scholarship fund memorializing Lance Corporal Edward "Augie" Schroeder II, one of fourteen Marines killed in the line of duty while serving in Iraq, has been established by his family. The goal of the scholarship is to give students the option of college who otherwise might not be able to finance their education.

Applicants must be from a College Now served school in Cuyahoga, Lorain, Medina or Summit counties and qualify for the Federal Pell Grant. Because Augie and his family felt the deep commitment to "giving back to the community," applicants should have a significant amount of community service, whether within the school or not. A selection committee will review applications and place strong emphasis on applicants who desire to obtain an education and level of commitment to community service.

Semifinalists may be interviewed by a selection committee. We anticipate that one student will be selected each year and scholarship amounts will range from $1,000 – 2,000 depending on financial need.

Those applying for the Augie Schroeder Scholarship should be meeting with a College Now advisor and submit the following required materials:

- ❑ Complete College Now Scholarship Application
- ❑ Be recommended by your College Now advisor
- ❑ Have a cumulative weighted GPA of at least a 2.5
